Gardening

Please take part in our 'guess the weight of the pumpkin' competition as all money raised will go to restocking our gardening supplies which all the children get to use.

Head of School

An email went out this week about the interview process which is taking place this Thursday and Friday. You may see lots of official looking people around the school but please rest assured that the process will cause minimal disruption to the children's learning.

Protect

We are coming to the end of our focus on the value 'Protect'. If you haven't already sent back your homework based on this value, then please do as we value your opinions.

Safeguarding Update

Guidance for EYFS pupils using technology. You may want to use these areas to develop discussions around IT at home.

Whole school attendance 99.4%

Our school attendance has been brilliant this half term. Please keep it up! There is a poster of attendance broken down into year groups on the large white board if you are interested in seeing how we are doing.
